75 YEARS OF INNOVATION

Up To Date Laundry has undergone remarkable evolution over the last 75 years. Since the day Nancy Stair Carter's father William Stair, Sr. purchased the business in 1946 we have been on the leading edge of advancing the laundry industry.

Our humble beginnings servicing ships from New York in the Baltimore Harbor and retail clientele of the local community gave us the grounding in customer service that we are known for today. We continue this legacy of providing our customers with high-quality and cost-competitive service within the framework of long-lasting relationships.

Up To Date Laundry is a leader in the healthcare laundry industry and marked by our numerous safety and customer service awards we have received from our national association. We have multiple facilities throughout the region that are state-of-the-art with sustainability solutions and full scale disaster recovery power generation. Our redundancy capabilities truly give our customers peace of mind that their products will always be delivered.

We have continued the evolution by investing in best-in-class automation, material handling, and laundering and finishing equipment to meet the changing requirement of the healthcare industry. Today we service almost 50 hospitals in the Mid-Atlantic Region, and we have a healthcare division that services hundreds of medical offices, surgery centers, and specialty healthcare facilities.

Our vision continues to be the premier provider of laundry services for healthcare practices in the Mid-Atlantic region and creating employment opportunities in our communities.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve your business,

— Up To Date Laundry, LLC.

MATS & MICROFIBER PRODUCTS

The right cleaning products can have a significant impact on your facility, from cleaning costs to the your patients' safety and experience—which can influence overall satisfaction and outcomes, and impact reimbursements as well.

Specially designed to be non-abrasive and non-linting, microfibers are small enough to penetrate into surface pores to remove the smallest particles of dust and dirt. And because microfiber uses fewer chemicals and water than traditional cleaning methods, it not only can help improve the cleanliness of your facility, but save time and money too.

- Washed in a Healthcare Laundry Accreditation Council accredited laundry, not an industrial plant.
- Up To Date microfiber products are durable, versatile and simple to use.
- We offer a wide range of microfiber products to meet your cleaning requirements.
- We offer a wide selection of sizes, styles and colors of mats—both indoor and outdoor classic floor mats, anti-fatigue mats and custom logo mats to fit your facility's needs.

“UP-TO-DATE SOLUTIONS FOR HEALTHCARE LINENS”

THE CHALLENGE

Infection Control—privacy cubicle curtains can be a cesspool of contamination. “Superbugs, such as staph, can live on poly fibers for up to 56 days,” according to a national hospital survey.

- Healthcare workers and patients touch curtains, which may contaminate and promote the transfer of bacteria to and from the curtains to patients and healthcare workers.
- Healthcare workers are likely to touch the curtains after performing hand hygiene but before patient care.
- Privacy curtains are difficult to disinfect and clean and they are NOT frequently changed.
- Pathogens can survive on hospital surfaces for days or even weeks, making the curtains a potential source for the transmission of pathogens from prior room occupants to a new patient.

THE SOLUTION:

Up To Date Healthcare

- Up To Date professionally launders cubical curtains to hospital laundry accreditation standards.
- Up To Date uses special wash formulas for healthcare to process cubical curtains.
- Up To Date presses each curtain.
- Up To Date offers different delivery solutions, such as taking down and rehangng of the curtains.
- Up To Date offers peace of mind by helping reduce a source of infection that could impact a hospital's Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements as well as their HCAHP score.
